STEWARDSHIP 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." MATTHEW 5:3

The phrase "poor in spirit" can be confusing. Think of it in this sense; poor in spirit means depending on God's providence and not depending on our own self-reliance. Being detached from earthly things (power, money, and comfort) and being attached to heavenly things (charity, sacrifice, and mercy). Denying ourselves from satisfying our desires and helping others obtain their basic needs.

HUMOR Taxes

An Officer with the Canada Revenue Agency to taxpayer: "I'm afraid we can't allow you to deduct last year's tax as a bad investment."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- The Parkinson's Support Group will be meeting on Sunday, February 1st from 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm in the Knights of Columbus building
- The Knights of Columbus will be having a Council meeting on Thursday, February 5th at 7:00 pm.

• Development and Peace-Cartas Canada warmly invites you to participate in the upcoming Share Lent Workshop, On Track for Justice. This gathering is open to members of DPCC and all those interested in social justice. Date, time and registration information is posted on the bulletin board at the church entrance.

Request for Volunteers

We would like to invite you to join our amazing volunteers.

"Many hands make light work". Our goal is that our volunteers need only to serve once a month.

Without these vital volunteers our ministries and services would cease to exist.

A list and description of each ministry can be located on the back page of this bulletin. A sign up sheet is available at the Church entrance or you can call the Debbie Wilton at 709-649-1958. Thank you for your service!!!

The Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Candle Bearers: A Candle Bearer is responsible to carry the candles at the beginning and end of the church service.

Cross Bearer: A Cross Bearer is someone who carries the cross at the beginning and end of the church service; they also hold the Missal for the Priest.

Hospitality Minister: These ministers look at the overall welcome a person receives, entering and leaving our Parish Masses. They put out the bulletins after Mass and return the Offertory boxes to the scarcity.

Lector (Reader): Would you like to become a more active participant in Mass? Are you a good reader? Have you ever considered becoming a lector here in the Parish? A good lector proclaims the Word of God in the first and second reading of the Mass. Effective proclamation of the Word involves the delivery of the message with clarity, conviction with appropriate volume and pace. The lector also leads the Prayers of the Faithfull.

Eucharistic Minister: Have you thought about being an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist? Eucharistic ministers, as they are usually called, assist the Priest with the distribution of the Holy Communion during Mass.

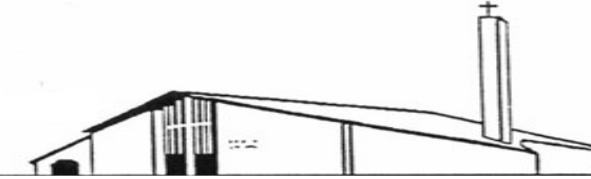

Sacristan: Welcome to the world of the Sacristan. They arrive a half hour early to open the Church, set up for Mass and make sure that lights go on and candles are lit at the proper time. When Mass is over, they extinguish the candles, put everything away, clean the vessels, shut the lights off and secure the building. They work behind the scenes, the unsung hero, who make everyone else look good!

Bereavement Ministry: This group consists of individuals who help families to plan funerals whether a Mass of Christian Burial or a funeral home liturgy. A team member offers support, compassion, and consolation to the family while preparing and coordinating the Mass / Service. The team member works with the family and assists at the funeral home vigil and the Mass / Service. Training and a timely schedule will be worked out between each person and the team coordinator.

Calling all Singers and Musicians: Were you ever in a school choir? Maybe you can read music? Can you make a weekly commitment to sing for Sunday Mass? If so, why not consider becoming a choir member and sharing your talent? Can you play a musical instrument? If so, your talents are needed also.
